

Thank you!

Your donation will go a long way to help children, youth and families in need.

The Hope for Children Fund supports the Catholic Children's Aid Society of Toronto (CCAS) by raising funds for education and poverty relief programs for children, youth and families who receive services from CCAS. We believe that by investing in our children and youth, and by helping families through their difficult times, we can transform our community.

Thank You!

